MEMORANDUM FOR: Executive Assistant, DDS&T

FROM:

[redacted]
Director, Foreign Broadcast Information Service

25X1

SUBJECT: DDCI Visit to Far East

REFERENCE: Your Note of 11 Jan 85

Joyce:

1. The DDCI should be invited to visit the FBIS facilities in Hong Kong and Bangkok.

2. There are no outstanding issues concerning the Hong Kong Bureau. It should be noted that the primary concentration of the bureau is on the Chinese press. The bureau was recently moved to a new building opposite the Consulate General. The chief of the FBIS facility is [redacted] GS-15.

25X1

3. Bangkok Bureau, located [redacted] near the Embassy, is one of FBIS' busiest operations. The antenna farm is shared with the Thais [redacted] west of Bangkok. FBIS is planning to install a satellite-monitoring facility [redacted] this will be similar to one recently opened in Panama. The Thais have raised questions about the status of FBIS in Thailand; there was no formal agreement between the governments when FBIS opened there in 1966. The Ambassador is handling the problem with the Foreign Minister. FBIS is hopeful the Foreign Minister will give approval for the new antenna installation soon, as equipment has been ordered and we hope to build the facility this fiscal year. The Ambassador is optimistic about a favorable decision. The Thai Government, incidentally, is a consumer of FBIS products, [redacted] The FBIS chief in Bangkok is [redacted] GS-15.
